PASTOR'S PEN

A word from the heart

Dear Friends,

This is an exciting season in the life of the Trinity community. As a community we are engaging in a process of deep reflection and strategic action aimed at strengthening our commitment to and effectiveness in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Toward the end we will gather on Saturday February 1, for the first of two strategic planning workshops. Our goal for this first workshop will be to craft a practical vision for the work of the next three years. We will then ask what is blocking us from moving toward our vision.

When we will gather once again on the 15th we will ask ourselves what innovative, substantial actions will deal with the underlying contradictions and move us toward our vision. The answers to this question will give us our strategic direction. From there we will move on to the formulation of a focused implementation plan.

As your pastor, I am personally excited to see what comes out of this two-part workshop. I am hoping that we will have a broadly supported shared vision for the Trinity community and a practical plan for its implementation.

Another thing that is happening, about which I am very excited, is our participation in the Transformational Communities of Praxis training that is being offered by the Annual Conference this year. Trinity's team consists of Pastor Octaviano Garcia, Lynn Francis, Don Khan, Pastor Johnnie Richardson (The Bible Forum), and Jennifer Alaniz (House of Prayer). Together this team will be learning techniques and best practices for Christian community development.

I have been a member of the design team for Transformational Communities of Praxis and have seen some great things come out of the Training. For more information on the program go to www.tcopraxis.org.

I ask that each of you join me in praying for Trinity and for the United Methodist Church as we move into what promises to be an amazing year of growth for this community and our denomination.

As always, I give thanks to God for each of you.

Blessings, Pastor Bob
