*Prayer for RAIN

Almighty God, we are in need of rain. We realize now, looking up into the clear, blue sky, what a marvel even the least drop of rain really is! To think that so much water can really fall out of the sky, which now is empty and clear is just amazing! We place our trust in You. We are sure that You know our needs, but You want us to ask you anyway, to show You that we know we are dependent on you. Look to our dry hills and fields, dear God, and bless them with the living blessing of soft rain. Then, the land will rejoice and rivers will sing Your praises, and the hearts of all will be made glad. Amen.

Good news from the TUMS task force!

Phase one is finished. Mr. Mackenzie with Mackenzie Restoration is renting 4 rooms, the kitchen and the reception area until his new building is complete.

Phase two is in the works. A day care is looking at the rest of the building (our old day care area) to put in a new day care.

Phase three will occur after Mr. MacKenzie has left. We are considering a senior center.

A BIG SHOUT OUT TO THE FOLLOWING PEOPLE WHO HAS HELPED TO GET PHASE ONE READY.

Kay Aguilar, Carol Lewis, Brooklyn Lewis, Phillip Lewis, Eric Lewis (he changed some locks for us. If you need a locksmith you might call him), Margie Guerra (she vacuumed the reception area and three classrooms with carpet), Julie Vincent, and Cindy Cozart.

*(But still a lot to do 😊. The team will appreciate an extra set of hands 😊
- please contact Cindy Cozart or Julie Vincent).*

Story on Peace - A Bible Illustration

There once lived a very wealthy man who was willing to pay a small fortune to the artist who could best illustrate the presence of peace. Several artists brought paintings of sunsets and quiet meadows, but the man did not accept any of these. One day as he was walking through looking at the most recent attempts, two paintings captured his attention. One was a painting of a beautiful calm lake surrounded by lush green mountains. The water seemed as still as glass and wispy white clouds danced in the bright blue of the sky. Next to this painting was another with vast differences. It was also a picture of a lake surrounded by mountains, but the strong winds had whipped the lake into a tempest and the dark clouds hovered about the rugged mountain landscape ready to release a downpour of torrential rains. The audience standing about watched with anticipation to see which one the man might choose to depict the story of peace. All were shocked when he did not choose the first, but instead chose the second. How could such a stormy scene tell a story of peace? The rich man explained. The first painting was beautiful and peaceful, but it didn't tell the truth of where peace can be found. Anyone could feel peaceful upon a crystal-clear lake with white clouds drifting across the sky and barely a breeze blowing across the water. Then he pointed out something in the second painting which everyone else had overlooked. If you peered closely into the mountains of the second, there was a waterfall, and tucked into a crevice of that mountain near the waterfall was a small nest on which a mother bird sat upon tiny blue eggs. The man spoke. "This second painting is a picture of true, perfect peace because it is within the storms of life we find real peace tucked into the side of God knowing His presence will guard and protect us even in the midst of this world's storms."

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you.

I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid."

- John 14:27

Each story on peace in the midst of storms remind us we can trust God even when life becomes turbulent. We can remember - God's got this and we can rest in Him with peace.
