Wholly Human Holy Divine

Jan. 7 - Feb. 14

Wholly Human Holy Divine January 7-February 14

In the new year, may you be blessed with all the good things God has to give.

"Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee"

Van Dyke wrote this poem in 1907 while staying at the home of Williams College president Harry Augustus Garfield. He was serving as a guest preacher at Williams at the time. He told his host that the local Berkshire Mountains had been his inspiration. The lyrics were first published in 1911 in Van Dyke's Book of Poems, Third Edition.

Van Dyke wrote of this hymn:

These verses are simple expressions of common Christian feelings and desires in this present time—hymns of today that may be sung together by people who know the thought of the age and are not afraid that any truth of science will destroy religion or any revolution on earth overthrow the kingdom of heaven. Therefore this is a hymn of trust and joy and hope.

Angels Among Us all year round!

Oh! Angels come to us anew once again that we may hear and not fear. God calls us to bring our hearts into alignment with his to lift our eyes above our own agenda, to have his compassion, and to seek him fervently. When we do that, we find ourselves part of an enormous plan that will bring joy to both him and to us. We find a fruitfulness we wouldn't otherwise experience. We share God's heartbeat in deeper and deeper ways. #DoNotBeAfraid to give, to forgive, to love, to hope, to be happy, to bear, to receive. to yield, to let go, to obey. Jesus once said, "...and behold, I am with you every day, even unto the end of time" - Matthew 28:20.

Be that 'angel' to someone.

PRAYER CHANGES THINGS

We invite you to:

Prayer Intercessory Ministry meets every Tuesday at 1:30 p.m., in the Null building, for a prayer meeting. Please join us.

"You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our heart is restless until it rests in you." -Augustine of Hippo

If you would like to serve God through song,

Trinity UMC Chancel Choir needs you. Please contact Jason Brown, Choir Director, or call the church office at 210-684-0261.

We'd love to have you!

Bible Study
